

Level six

Reading sheet 1

This kangaroo is looking for some food.
She is hungry.

The kangaroo has a baby with her.
She has the baby in her pouch.

The baby kangaroo likes to be in it's mother's pouch.

The baby kangaroo is called a joey.
When his mother is jumping along, the joey is safe in the pouch.

The joey will be safe in the pouch until it is big and can look after itself.

When the mother kangaroo finds some good grass to eat, the joey will hop out of the pouch and eat grass too.

Kangaroos live in Australia.

Level six

Comprehension sheet 1

1. What animal is this?

2. Where is the baby?

3. What does the kangaroo like to eat?

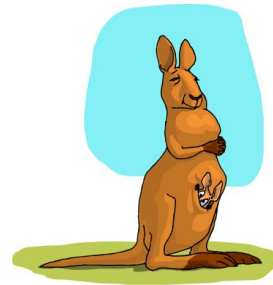

4. What will the baby kangaroo do when his mother is eating?

5. What is a baby kangaroo called?

Write something you have learnt from the information.

Level six

Activity sheet 1

Write whether the information is true or false

True or false

1. The kangaroo is eating meat.

2. The baby kangaroo likes to ride in the pouch

3. Kangaroo's like to skip in the grass.

4. The kangaroo has a joey in the pouch.

5. The dog is hungry.

Put a circle around the correct answers

(A) Kangaroos live in Australia.

(B) Kangaroos can swim fast.

(C) Kangaroos use their long feet to jump along.

(D) A joey will stay in the pouch to keep it safe.